quote/pg # "I must not only punish but punish with impunity." (1) Mood conveyed? Why? This quote conveys an ominous mood-impunity means "exempt from punishment" so if the narrator wants to punish Fortunato without getting caught, it implies something threatening will happen.	quote/pg # Mood conveyed? Why?	quote/pg # "...he did not perceive that my smile now was at the thought of his immolation" (1). Mood conveyed? Why? The mood is predatory here, because Montressor is luring his "prey" into a trap.
